POOL ROOM NO MORE

Paducah's First Experience is Quite Short-Lived.

The King Bee Skips and His Alleged Agent Is Arrested Today.

THE SPORTS PLAYED IT STRONG

A pool room in operation for the past several months over a Fourth street saloon was today broken up, when County Attorney Eugene Graves swore out a warrant against the alleged proprietor, F. M. Freil, said to be from Owensboro, and his manager, a man named E. M. Woodall, the latter being arrested.

Very few, outside of the sporting fraternity, knew the pool room was in operation, and it is said that considerable money had been won and lost there, some of the young bloods who had dropped their wads squealing.

The pool room was similar to those in other cities on which periodic raids are made, and which have occasioned so much trouble in Louisville and Lexington. Racing returns were received regularly and betting made on all of them, and the place was becoming quite popular.

When an effort was made to find Freil today he had disappeared, and it is said has skipped. He is charged with operating a pool room, and Woodall, arrested, claims to be only the manager, and that he had nothing to do with running the place.

County Attorney Graves has received information that quite a number of people have lost money in the place, one $300 not long since.

Woodall will give bond and probably waive examination when the case against him is called.

CHICAGO TO GULF

Some of the Details of the New Line.

It Will Go From Chicago to New Orleans—Part of Rock Island.

Chicago, June 24—The Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and New Orleans Railway company will be the name of the Rock Island-Frisco extension to New Orleans, and this road will take in the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, St. Louis, Memphis and Southeastern and the New Orleans extension and terminals, making a system of about 1500 miles.

The system will form a thorough line from Chicago to New Orleans, and a water level line from St. Louis south, and it should be an important factor for the New Orleans trade and a strong competitor of the Illinois Central and Louisville and Nashville. It may be decided to include the Choctaw, Oklahoma and Gulf, about 1000 miles, into the new system, which road would prove a valuable feeder for New Orleans business.

The joint use of the tracks between the Frisco and Gould properties of 300 miles of the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern will serve the purpose of the new Rock Island company as well as an independent line, as all the Rock Island needs is a connecting link for its through business to New Orleans.

It is proposed to exchange the securities of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois and St. Louis, Memphis and Southeastern for those of the new company, and at the same time an amount of new securities will be issued sufficient to provide for the New Orleans extension and terminals, one-half of which will be owned by the Southern railway.

LICENSED TO MARRY.

A marriage license was yesterday afternoon issued Albert Perlew, of the county, aged 21 to Lillie Dowdy, of the county, age 17. It will make the first marriage of both.

ENJOY THE OUTING

The Y. M. C. A. Juniors Having a Fine Time Near Kuttawa.

A Number of Friends Pleasantly Spent the Day With Them Yesterday.

REGULAR PROGRAM EACH DAY

A party of Paducahans who went to Kuttawa to visit the camp of the junior department of the Y. M. C. A. returned home this morning. It was their intention to return Tuesday evening, but wrecks on the I. C. road which delayed passenger trains for twelve hours lengthened the outing.

The party was composed of: Mr. and Mrs. James A. Rudy, Mrs. Samuel Skinner, Mrs. Charles Leigh, Mrs. Mildred Davis, Mrs. Oscar Starks, Mrs. Sam Goodman, Miss Mattie Fowler, Miss Martha Davis, Miss Laura Sanders and Miss Ora Leigh.

The camp has an ideal location on picturesque Lake Ohloe, near Kuttawa, and, both from the beauty of its surroundings and the difficulties in reaching it, it has been christened "Camp Paradise." The only way to get to it from Kuttawa is by crossing the lake in a "John boat," or by walking around the lake, a distance of about a mile.

The boys in camp, who are under the direction of Physical Instructor B. L. Matthis of the Y. M. C. A., are: Ned Ashbrook, Henry Cave, Willie Rudy, Carl Leigh, Roy Dorris, Spencer Starks and Oscar Starks. There is a regular program of diversions for each day, which is varied by excursions to different points of interest near the camp. The boys arise to a bugle call about 6:30 and have a substantial breakfast prepared by a colored cook at the camp. The day is spent in boating, fishing and bathing. The bathing, which is set for 4 o'clock in the afternoon in Cumberland river, is always anticipated as the leading pleasure of the day. The boys wear bathing suits and make an attractive picture, swimming and diving.

Dinner is served at noon and supper at 6 o'clock. There is a dining tent, with a long wooden table furnished with tin cups, plates, knives and forks. The cooking is done on iron rods placed over a trench, in which a fire is kindled. The bill of fare consists of bacon, ham, eggs, beef, vegetables, coffee, milk and sometimes a dessert for dinner. The day is begun and ended with bible reading, and in the evening just before bedtime stories are told. The boys sleep on the ground under a tent. An oilcloth is first spread on the ground, a blanket is placed over this and another blanket is used for cover.

The campers will return home Saturday evening.

Miss Davis and Miss Sanders, of the party who visited the camp Tuesday,

HAS NOTHING TO SAY

Mayor Yeiser Evidently Intends to Ignore Ministers.

Says He Does Not Care to Be Interviewed on That at Present.

CEMETERY COMMITTEE TO MEET

Mayor Yeiser is the same genial, affable candidate he always was, and you can't find out anything more about what he thinks or is going to do than in former years when he donned the gum shoes to make a still hunt for office.

"What about that answer the Ministerial association expects from you, Mr. Mayor, in regard to municipal morals?" he was asked today.

"You haven't seen any answer from me yet, have you?" was his smiling reply.

"Do you intend to reply to the charge that the questioners have been ignored by you?" he was asked.

"I have nothing to say" was the sententious rejoinder.

It is consequently plain that the administration is to make no reply to the questions propounded by the ministers except what is contained in the card from Marshal Crow published recently. The city hall officials laugh when asked about replying to charges against the administration and say that politics is a game that more than one can play at, and Mayor Yeiser remains as mum as an oyster.

"I will talk about city business," he said to a reporter, "but not about my own. You can say that I shall call a meeting of the cemetery committee of the general council for Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock to take some action towards pricing the new lots in Oak Grove. We have not yet settled on what charges shall be fixed on them, but expect to do so then."

were guests Tuesday of the Misses Irwin, who are well known here, in their pretty Kuttawa home.

NEW UNIFORMS

OFFICERS OF THE MILITARY COMPANY SOON TO RECEIVE THEM.

The state of Kentucky has notified Captain James Caldwell and his officers that he will soon be presented with a new set of uniforms for the officers. Paducah has just secured new uniforms but the dress of the officers has been changed and the present from the state will save the officers much expense. This is good news to the officers and is also an excellent compliment.

1,000 TO BE PROMOTED.

Chicago, June 24—One thousand Chicago postoffice clerks will be promoted July 1.

IS MAKING A RECORD

Acting Judge Cross is Going to Dispose of Nuisances.

Chronic Malefactors to be Fined Heavily—One Gets $100 Today.

A FEW OTHER CASES TRIED

Attorney D. A. Cross, who is acting judge of the police court, is establishing a record that promises to make him a terror to evil-doers, especially those who are in the habit of boarding with the lockup keeper about two-thirds of their time. Many colored offenders, and some white ones, manage to get back in the lockup as soon as they get out, and Acting Judge Cross will give them all the time they want on the city streets during his term.

Today John Lewis, colored, who was released from the lockup yesterday, was presented on a charge of disorderly conduct. The evidence showed that he went to the home of some white women on the North Side last night when no men were around and aroused them to "borrow an ex." His conduct was very peculiar, to say the least, and he could give no satisfactory explanation of it, although he was probably full of "coke." A fine of $100 was assessed against him and he was informed that the next time he comes up before Judge Cross he will be given fifty days in jail in addition.

Mary Brown, colored, displayed a faulty memory in regard to the number of times she had been in police court lately. She couldn't remember to save her life. She was charged with assaulting and abusing Maude Titsworth, colored, and said she did it, but only after she had been abused. The Titsworth woman of course told a different tale, and said the woman pulled her hair out and choked her, and had the bunch of hair in court to prove it. On account of the defendant's delicate condition she was not fined, but both were placed under a $500 bond to do no more fighting and released.

The warrant against Fairfax Craig, for refusing to support his child, was dismissed, as the violation seems to have been unintentional. He has brought suit for divorce, but the case has never been tried, and his wife lives on Court street, where the father objects to the child's being kept. He says he will support it if it is taken to a suitable place, but otherwise not. The court advised him to prosecute the divorce suit and get the child.

James McNulty was fined $10 and costs for violation of the Sabbath.

Annie Singleton, colored, who is an old offender and is such a frequenter of the prisoners' dock that the negro spectators giggled when the court asked her if she had ever been there before, pleaded guilty to being drunk and disorderly and throwing a brick through Mr. A. Denker's showcase. She was fined only $25 and costs.

Jennie Hester and Sam Phillips, charged with stealing a watch, were held to answer, and others may be implicated in the theft before the case is finished.

ANOTHER LOG CABIN.

R. B. PHILLIPS WILL BUILD A COUNTRY HOME IN ARCADIA.

Another country home is to be added to Paducah's already large colony in Arcadia. Plans are being made by Architect William Brainerd for a log cabin to be erected by Mr. R. B. Phillips between the Boswell place and The Pines. It will not be built before next spring.

It will be constructed of hewn logs and will have rustic porches. There will be seven rooms on the first floor and several in an attic. All modern conveniences will be included.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips have occupied The Pines in connection with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Friedman and Mr. and Mrs. George Wallace for several summers.

HEAD ON SMASH-UP

Freight Trains Wrecked Near Dawson Last Evening.

One Man Missing and Is Supposed to Have Been Killed—Several Were Hurt.

EXACT CAUSE IS UNKNOWN

There was a head-end freight collision between two freight trains last night on the I. C. just 500 yards north of Dawson, and one man is missing and several injured as a result of the smash-up. One engine was knocked 100 feet off the track and the tanks of two other engines totally wrecked.

The trains were freights No. 151, engine No. 24, in charge of Conductor J. W. McCann, Engineer Charles Underwood and Fireman Steinberg, and No. 196, engines Nos. 1164 and 22, No. 196 being a double-header, in charge of Conductor J. H. Fink, Engineer E. Shoggo and Fireman T. C. Anderson on No. 22 and Engineer Tom J. Mullen and Fireman Tota Grammon on 1164. No. 1164 is a total wreck and was knocked a distance from the track. The tanks of engines 22 and 24 were total wrecks and one car of train No. 196 was totally wrecked. Nine cars of No. 151 were wrecked, the remainder of the train escaping injury.

All enginemen jumped and saved themselves from probable fatal injuries, and the only man missing is Ed Johnson, a colored brakeman who was on the tank of No. 1164. He has not been found and it is thought he was killed in the wreck and his remains covered by the debris of the wreckage.

Fireman Grammon of Louisville is perhaps the worst injured, having a shoulder dislocated and his body badly cut and bruised in several places. Fireman Underwood of Memphis sustained slight injuries about the head in alighting, his scalp being lacerated in several places. Engineer Shoggo's back was wrenched and Fireman Steinberg was bruised about the body in alighting. Conductor Fink escaped with a slight cut behind the left ear. Engineer Mullen had a lip cut and several bad bruises about the body, but all came in on No. 121, the accommodation train, having not been too badly injured to walk, except Grammon, who was kept at Dawson under the care of the railroad physician. He will be brought here as soon as he is able to be moved.

Engines Nos. 22 and 24 locked together and will have to be brought in together. The wreck was one of the worst seen on this division in some time and the loss to the I. C. will amount to a great deal.

The cause of the accident is supposed to lie in the fact that both enginemen tried to take opposite switches and neither succeeded. They met while running very fast and the escape of the enginemen and train crews is considered miraculous. Another cause given is that No. 151 was running ahead of time, but the real cause will be determined in the investigation.

The local wrecker was sent out from here last night and is still working on the wreck. The fast Louisville passenger train, No. 101, was delayed many hours, not arriving until 7 o'clock this morning, running thirteen hours late.

A coal car broke down at Horton, Ky., near Louisville, yesterday afternoon and delayed the fast passenger train No. 101 several hours.

HANDSOME INCREASE.

On account of the defendant's delicate condition she was not fined, but both were placed under a $500 bond to do no more fighting and released.

The warrant against Fairfax Craig, for refusing to support his child, was dismissed, as the violation seems to have been unintentional. He has brought suit for divorce, but the case has never been tried, and his wife lives on Court street, where the father objects to the child's being kept. He says he will support it if it is taken to a suitable place, but otherwise not. The court advised him to prosecute the divorce suit and get the child.

James McNulty was fined $10 and costs for violation of the Sabbath.

Annie Singleton, colored, who is an old offender and is such a frequentor of the prisoners' dock that the negro spectators giggled when the court asked her if she had ever been there before, pleaded guilty to being drunk and disorderly and throwing a brick through Mr. A. Denker's showcase. She was fined only $25 and costs.

Jennie Hester and Sam Phillips, charged with stealing a watch, were held to answer, and others may be implicated in the theft before the case is finished.

ANOTHER LOG CABIN.

R. B. PHILLIPS WILL BUILD A COUNTRY HOME IN ARCADIA.

Another country home is to be added to Paducah's already large colony in Arcadia. Plans are being made by Architect William Brainerd for a log cabin to be erected by Mr. R. B. Phillips between the Boswell place and The Pines. It will not be built before next spring.

It will be constructed of hewn logs and will have rustic porches. There will be seven rooms on the first floor and several in an attic. All modern conveniences will be included.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips have occupied The Pines in connection with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Friedman and Mr. and Mrs. George Wallace for several summers.

HEAD ON SMASH-UP

Freight Trains Wrecked Near Dawson Last Evening.

One Man Missing and Is Supposed to Have Been Killed—Several Were Hurt.

EXACT CAUSE IS UNKNOWN

There was a head-end freight collision between two freight trains last night on the I. C. just 500 yards north of Dawson, and one man is missing and several injured as a result of the smash-up. One engine was knocked 100 feet off the track and the tanks of two other engines totally wrecked.

The trains were freights No. 151, engine No. 24, in charge of Conductor J. W. McCann, Engineer Charles Underwood and Fireman Steinberg, and No. 196, engines Nos. 1164 and 22, No. 196 being a double-header, in charge of Conductor J. H. Fink, Engineer E. Shoggo and Fireman T. C. Anderson on No. 22 and Engineer Tom J. Mullen and Fireman Tom Grammon on 1164. No. 1164 is a total wreck and was knocked a distance from the track. The tanks of engines 22 and 24 were total wrecks and one car of train No. 196 was totally wrecked. Nine cars of No. 151 were wrecked, the remainder of the train escaping injury.

All enginemen jumped and saved themselves from probable fatal injuries, and the only man missing is Ed Johnson, a colored brakeman who was on the tank of No. 1164. He has not been found and it is thought he was killed in the wreck and his remains covered by the debris of the wreckage.

Fireman Grammon of Louisville is perhaps the worst injured, having a shoulder dislocated and his body badly cut and bruised in several places. Fireman Underwood of Memphis sustained slight injuries about the head in alighting, his scalp being lacerated in several places. Engineer Shoggo's back was wrenched and Fireman Steinberg was bruised about the body in alighting. Conductor Fink escaped with a slight cut behind the left ear. Engineer Mullen had a lip cut and several bad bruises about the body, but all came in on No. 121, the accommodation train, having not been too badly injured to walk, except Grammon, who was kept at Dawson under the care of the railroad physician. He will be brought here as soon as he is able to be moved.

Engines Nos. 22 and 24 locked together and will have to be brought in together. The wreck was one of the worst seen on this division in some time and the loss to the I. C. will amount to a great deal.

The cause of the accident is supposed to lie in the fact that both enginemen tried to take opposite switches and neither succeeded. They met while running very fast and the escape of the enginemen and train crews is considered miraculous. Another cause given is that No. 151 was running ahead of time, but the real cause will be determined in the investigation.

The local wrecker was sent out from here last night and is still working on the wreck. The fast Louisville passenger train, No. 101, was delayed many hours, not arriving until 7 o'clock this morning, running thirteen hours late.

A coal car broke down at Horton, Ky., near Louisville, yesterday afternoon and delayed the fast passenger train No. 101 several hours.

Lost Reason After LaGrippe.

Daughter Had Frequent Spasms.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Cured Them Both.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is a specific for nervous disorders. It removes the cause and effects a speedy and permanent cure.

"I feel it is my duty to let you know that your medicines have cured my little girl of nine, of spasms. She commenced having them at the age of three. Our family doctor said she would outgrow them but she did not. We took her to another physician who said her trouble was epileptic fits in a mild form. He did her no good either. She was so nervous she could hardly walk. As I had already used Dr. Miles' Nervine and found it a good remedy for myself I commenced giving it to my child. I gave her in all ten bottles of the Nervine and one of the Blood Purifier. That was over two years ago and she has not had an attack since we commenced the treatment. She is no longer troubled with nervousness and we consider her permanently cured. I enclose her picture. My mother-in-law lost her reason and was insane for three months from the effects of LaGrippe. Six bottles of Dr. Miles' Nervine cured her. My sister has also taken it for sick headache with good results. We all thank you very much for your good medicines and kind advice. I don't think there is any other medicine half so good. I send my daughter's photograph so that you may see what a sweet little girl lives out in Arkansas."—MRS. HANNAH BARKETT, Springdale, Ark.

THE NORTON CONTEST

Nothing Ever Heard of it in Louisville.

The Rumor Is Not Credited There—Nothing Known in Paducah

About It.

IS PROBABLY A "SMOKE-UP"

No stock is taken in Paducah in the "smoke-up" sent out from Paducah about a contest of the Norton will by local heirs and others. Nothing seems to be known of it here. Yesterday's Louisville Herald says:

"The announcement that the sixteen male heirs of Capt. W. F. Norton, Sr., will contest the will of the late Capt. Norton, Jr., on the ground that the provisions of the will of the elder Norton had not been carried out, was a surprise to the executors of the younger Norton's will, John W. Barr and George W. Norton. Neither of them had heard that any contest was contemplated, and both of them last night refused to make any statement for publication. Nor had Dr. J. B. Marvin, president of the board of trustees of the Louisville Baptist Orphans' Home, the principal beneficiary under the will, heard anything about a contest being planned.

"I have not heard about a contest, and I do not care to make any statement tonight," was all that George W. Norton would say last night. "This is a private matter, and it would not look right for me to talk about it, you see, so you must excuse me."

"From a prominent lawyer who has often acted in the capacity of legal adviser of the Norton family the following statement was obtained:

"While I had not heard anything regarding a contest by the sixteen male heirs of W. F. Norton, Sr., I do know that that is the number of heirs of the senior Norton who are now living in various parts of the country, and I do know that several years ago Captain Norton, Jr., bought up the contingent claims of these sixteen male heirs in order that the estate might not be complicated by the existence of these claims. I fail to recall, if I ever knew, what any of the amounts paid or the aggregate amount spent in settling these claims were, but I know that deeds and conveyances were recorded. I believe that the claims of the heirs were fully settled by the deeds that were made with the late Captain Norton, and I do not think that any contest at this time would amount to anything. I have no doubt whatever that Captain Norton was in his right mind when he made his will and I think that the statement that he was unduly influenced was ridiculous. He had paid the heirs under his father's will what they wanted for their contingent claims, and why should he be influenced against them? The heirs have no chance, in my mind."

"Another fact that is said to be against the heirs is that Mrs. W. F. Norton, widow of the senior W. F. Norton, was the one who left the entire estate to her son, W. F. Norton, Jr., she having received it from her husband, W. F. Norton, Sr.

"The exact amount of the estate may never be made public unless the heirs who now threaten to contest the will are able to prove their case in court, for in his will Capt. Norton expressly stated that he wished no appraisal made or any bond required of his cousin, George W. Norton, or John W. Barr, Jr., the two executors appointed by him."

CLOTHING CAUGHT

NARROW ESCAPE OF A VENERABLE MAN YESTERDAY.

Dr. Duley was called to the home of Mr. George Shane, near Wallace park, late yesterday afternoon to dress painful burns received by the venerable gentleman in quite a peculiar manner. He is about 76 years old and for some time has been bed-ridden. Yesterday while lighting his pipe a spark ignited the bed clothing and he was painfully burned in the side before assistance could reach him. His wife heard his cries and threw water on the blaze, which fortunately was extinguished before Mr. Shane was seriously burned.

Mr. R. C. Bard, of Louisville, who was here two years ago in the U. S. recruiting service, left this morning for Eddyville to visit. He was accompanied by his wife on his visit here.

ALL WERE ELECTED

Teachers Chosen as Per Program Last Night.

Board of Education Transacts its Regular Routine Business.

CHANGES IN THE GRADES

The board of education met last night in adjourned session and held the annual election of teachers. The caucus held the preceding night is virtually the election, but the board has to go through the formality of an election after the caucus. Last night all the teachers chosen the night before were duly elected.

The vacancy in the colored schools was filled by the election of Mary Overby.

The payroll for June was allowed.

It is desired to furnish the assembly chamber in the high school building and the building committee was instructed to investigate the cost of the improvements needed, and report at the next meeting.

The district school committee was notified to furnish the two new rooms made necessary by the increased attendance in the schools, the additions being made at the High school building.

It was decided to transfer the Eighth grade from Jefferson building to the Washington building and leave more room at the Jefferson school for the primary grades.

It was voted to place the newly elected teachers at the regular meeting in August.

CHAMPION BEEF EATER.

FORMER MAYOR VAN WYCK RETAINS TITLE OF CHIEF GLUTTON.

New York, June 24—Former Mayor Robert Van Wyck retains the title of the champion beef eater of Greater New York. Effort to beat his reported record of two years ago of eight and three-quarter pounds at one sitting failed at a contest just held in Williamsburg. The contestants were Michael Schaupauf and N. Oschmann. Fully 500 Brooklynites watched the contest. The time limit was one hour and forty minutes. Schaupauf took the lead at the second stake, holding it until the finish, when it was announced that he had eaten, in addition to a hundred clams and crackers, five and three-quarter pounds of steak, fifty oysters, two loaves of bread, a bunch of asparagus and ten crabs.

OVERRULED MOTION

CASE NOT TRANSFERRED FROM BENTON TO FEDERAL COURT.

A motion was made by the railroad company yesterday in circuit court at Benton, Ky., before Judge Campbell to transfer the case of the Gregory administrator, against the Illinois Central for $30,000 to the federal court here. The damages are for the death of Mr. Gregory, who was killed in Marshall county, but as Engineer Beam is made a party to the suit and did not join the motion, it was overruled.

SUMMER RHEUMATISM

Every season has its own diseases, but Rheumatism belongs to all, for when it gets well entrenched in the system, and joints and muscles are saturated with the poison, the aches and pains are coming and going all the time, and it becomes an all-the-year-round disease; an attack coming as quickly from sudden chilling of the body when overheated, a fit of indigestion or exposure to the damp, Easterly winds of Summer as from the keen, cutting winds, freezing atmosphere and bitter cold of Winter.

Rheumatism never comes by accident. It is in the blood and system before a pain is felt. Some inherit a strong predisposition or tendency; it is born in them; but whether heredity is back of it or it comes from imprudent and careless ways of living, it is the same always and at all seasons. The real cause of Rheumatism is a polluted, sour and acid condition of the blood, and as it flows through the body deposits a gritty, irritating substance or sediment in the muscles, joints and nerves, and it is these that produce the terrible pains, inflammation and swelling and the misery and torture of Rheumatism. No other disease causes such pain, such wide-spread suffering. It deforms and cripples its thousands, leaving them helpless invalids and nervous wrecks.

When neglected or improperly treated, Rheumatism becomes chronic, the pains are wandering or shifting from one place to another, sometimes sharp and cutting, again dull and aggravating. The muscles of the neck, shoulders and back, the joints of the knees, ankles and wrists, are most often the seat of pain. Countless liniments and plasters are applied to get relief, but such things do not reach the poisoned blood; their effect is only temporary; they are neither curative nor preventive. The blood must be purified, and all irritating matter removed from the circulation before permanent relief and a thorough cure is effected, and no remedy does this so certainly and so quickly as S. S. S. It contains not only purifying and tonic properties, but solvent qualities as well, all these being necessary in eradicating the poison and making a complete and lasting cure of Rheumatism. S. S. S. cleanses the blood of all irritating matter and the acid particles are dissolved and filtered out of the system, thus relieving the muscles and joints and removing all danger of future attacks. Under its tonic effect the nervous system regains its normal tone and the appetite and digestion improve, resulting in the upbuilding of the general health. S. S. S. contains no Potash or minerals of any description, but is guaranteed purely vegetable. Old people will find it not only the best blood purifier, but a most invigorating tonic—just such a remedy as they need to enrich the blood and quicken the circulation.

SSS

Whether you have Rheumatism in the acute or chronic stage, the treatment must be internal, deep and thorough in order to be lasting. Never be satisfied with anything less than an absolutely perfect cure. This you can get by the use of S. S. S., the oldest and best purifier and greatest of all tonics.

Write us fully and freely about your case, and medical advice will be given without charge, and our special book on Rheumatism will be mailed free to all desiring it.

YOUNG WIFEHOOD

Boston, Mass., 152 Shawmut Ave., Oct. 25, 1902.

After I had been married about four months I felt my health generally decline. I seemed to lose the light step and dragged along wearily instead. My appetite failed me and I lost health and strength. I was nervous and had shooting pains through my limbs and stomach while bearing down pains and constant headaches added to my misery. The menstrual flow became more and more profuse and I was unable to attend to my daily duties. My husband called in three different physicians and I took medicine enough to kill or cure a dozen women, but it all had no effect on me whatever, until I took Wine of Cardui. In a few days I felt a change for the better, my general health improved and at the next time of my period my flow was more natural and I was in less pain. Gradually I recovered my health and strength and am now in perfect health. I take an occasional dose of Wine of Cardui which keeps me well. I am happy to give you this endorsement.

Wm. D. Ricker

Wine of Cardui brought Mrs. Ricker good health. That is why she has so much faith in it that she never is without Wine of Cardui in her house.

The first months following marriage are full of peril for the young wife and a dose of Wine of Cardui every day is a great reinforcement to her strength. Why don't you try for the same health Mrs. Ricker has? It is easy to secure if you take Wine of Cardui according to directions. Wine of Cardui strengthens weak and worn-out women of any age and assists the mother and housewife to bear her exacting duties. It is a great strain to give birth to children and to perform housework, but Wine of Cardui makes women fit for all the duties of womanhood.

It will relieve the pains of irregularity, cures falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, ovarian troubles, and has been known to remove what physicians considered dangerous tumors. Women who use Wine of Cardui do not suffer at the monthly periods. No shock or strain lays them up in bed for days or weeks with nervous prostration. They do not suffer hysterical attacks, because Wine of Cardui gives them strong nerves freed from the irritation of female suffering.

A $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui purchased from your druggist will keep you free from pain.

HOPKINSVILLE WINS

EASY THIS TIME.

Hopkinsville, June 24—The Henderson club failed to arrive yesterday as per new schedule and the game was declared forfeited to Hoptown.

BROKE UP IN A ROW.

Jackson, Tenn., June 24—Catcher Holmes of the Clarksville team used profane language today and was ordered out of the game by the umpire. He declined to go and was taken out by police officers. The Clarksville players got mad and left the field, forfeiting the game to Jackson by a score of 9 to 0.

The prettiest and hardest fought game ever seen on a local diamond was that yesterday between Paducah and Cairo. The perennial baseball rivalry between the two cities brought out a regular Sunday crowd. The grandstand was filled with excited spectators, and everybody left well satisfied with the exhibition of ball playing they witnessed.

It was nip and tuck the whole time. Freeman did the twirling for Paducah, and Brockett, Cairo's star pitcher, who has lost only one game out of ten, was in the box for the visitors. For ten innings and a half goose eggs resulted, the batters often going out in one, two, three order.

The visitors could not hit Freeman, which is what probably accounts for the close game. The Egyptian pitcher was touched up for seven hits, but they were not bunched and the fielding of the Cairo boys was first class. Freeman lost his game by a wild to second baseman and too many tried to get it, the ball dropping. LeCompte hit to short and Perry was forced out. Connors struck out. Edmunds went out from pitcher to first. No runs.

THIRD INNING.

Cairo—Powers fanned. Schwab walked and stole second. Hughes struck out. Smith struck out. No runs.

Paducah—Fitzgerald fanned. Freeman went out on grounder to first. Clifford rapped one to center field fence for two bags. Girard flew out to center fielder. No runs.

FOURTH INNING.

Cairo—Brockett hit to third baseman for a base. Rutledge sacrificed from third to first. Wallace struck out. Crotty fanned. No runs.

Paducah—Murray flew out to catcher. Perry struck out. LeCompte singled to right. Connors struck out. No runs.

FIFTH INNING.

Cairo—Witt hit by pitched ball. Powers struck out. Schwab hit easy one and got first on bad throw and Witt died trying to steal home. Dummy Hughes struck out. No runs.

THE WEATHER.

Partly cloudy tonight. Thursday
showers and cooler.

The Hopkinsville papers state that the members of the club while here
"were made sick by the impure
water," but fail to report what brand
it was or where they got it.

The sentiment against building
"crooks" in the streets of Paducah is very pronounced and the two boards
should think of the future before voting to order any offset streets anywhere.

The city officials are to meet Friday
and fix the price of lots in Oak Grove cemetery. They had better not make them too high, as some of them are candidates and may need a quiet place
to repose after the November election.

The administration seems to be having a hard time trying to enforce the law and insure justice for those who ought to have been getting it for lo-
these many years in some districts of Kentucky. They are holding conferences, special terms of court and fish-
frys, and occasionally asking changes of venue, in their efforts to divert the attention of the civilized world from crime-ridden Breathitt county. The easiest way to enforce law and order
in Breathitt is to remove the cause of lawlessness, and this apparently cannot be done until Hargis and his henchmen are dismissed from office
and power.

The Democrats are never satisfied
unless they are squabbling. There, for instance, are two of the recent candidates for the Democratic nomination for commonwealth's attorney
in this district still fighting over the nomination, and one charges that the other had the ballot boxes stuffed.
Surely no Democrat would do such a thing, especially against another Democrat. The contest, however,
could probably have been staved off.
It is understood that the defeated candidate offered not to contest if the two offices of city attorney and prosecuting
attorney of Paducah were consolidated
and kindly given to him in November.
As this is easier said than done, it is perhaps not difficult to understand
why his proposition was not accepted,
but it is a pity the contest was not stopped before it caused hard feelings.

There are supposed civilized districts in the state where the people go to church, denounce brutality, intemperance, immorality of every description and other vices, vote whiskey out regularly when the time comes, and still allow dogs to be cruelly and indiscriminately shot down in the streets, alleys and yards. There are a great many heartless, beastly, revolting things, but few are worse than having a man to go through the public streets and shoot inoffensive dogs,
wounding them often in such a manner as to enable them to escape and suffer perhaps for days, endangering
the lives of people who chance to be near when the murder takes place,
and instilling into the juvenile mind
a cruelty that years may not overcome. Shooting dogs is in itself brutal and repulsive to any person of refinement or humane tendencies,
but to shoot them wherever they are found and in unlimited numbers is unspeakably barbarous.

after stop at Grayson Springs regularly.

THE PLAINTIFFS WON

Suit Against Miss Mary B. E.
Greif Finished at Last.

Court Renders Verdict in Favor of the Other Greif Heirs.

The suit of Mrs. Seibert and others against Miss Mary B. E. Greif was decided by Judge Husbands in circuit court today. The action was for the value of a house and lot on Court street sold some time ago to Dr. Lillard Sanders.

It seems that the defendant, Miss Mary B. E. Greif, some time ago sued her father's estate for $2,500 claimed on notes and secured a judgment for that amount. Some of the other heirs then sued her for the value of the house and lot on Court street, which
the court today adjudged them.

The case is quite an unusual one.
It seems there was a codicil to the will of the late Mrs. Margaret Greif stipulating that if any of the children
attempted to break the will his or her share of the estate should be forfeited.
One of the children, Wm. Greif, filed an appeal to the probate of the will,
and induced Miss Mary B. E. Greif to also sign it, she signing more for accommodation than anything else, it is claimed. A compromise was then effected by the other heirs deeding
them the house and lot on Court street
and the contest over the will averted.
Subsequently suit was filed to recover
the value of the house, it being claimed that Miss Mary B. E. Greif, into whose possession the property
passed, had violated the provisions of the will by signing the appeal to the probate of the will, which the court construes to be an effort to break the will. She will appeal the judgment rendered today.

GHASTLY FIND.

BODY OF A MURDERED WOMAN
AND OF A MAN FOUND.

LaGrange, Ga., June 24—The corpses of W. E. Cooley, a prominent planter, who lived near here, and of Ida Anderson were discovered in Long
Cane creek by a party of fishermen.
The woman's head was crushed as if it had been struck with an ax. There were no marks on Mr. Cooley's body to indicate violence, and it is supposed that he threw himself into the stream. The couple had been missing for several days.

The woman's husband has been arrested, charged with murdering her
and throwing the body into the stream.

It is supposed that Mr. Cooley,
after deciding to drown himself,
selected by accident the place where
the murdered woman's body was found.

BIG OUTPUT.

ONE COMPANY TURNS OUT 1,000
LOCOMOTIVES IN SIX MONTHS.

If they are not disappointed in their expectations the Baldwin locomotive works will by July 1 have turned out
the greatest number of finished engines in any six months in history.
The mark fixed by the officials as the production for the six months is 1000
locomotives, which is equivalent to two-thirds of the output for 1902,
when more than 1500 engines were turned out, breaking all former records. For May the output was 190 machines, and the same number was turned out during April. Of the 1000 locomotives the great majority are on orders placed last year. The number taken this year will keep the works
busy well into 1904.

FIGHTING WHISKEY.

WARM TIME ON IN MUHLEN-BERG COUNTY.

Central City, Ky., June 24—A hot fight is on between the temperance people and the whiskey people. Petitions are being circulated in all the precincts of Muhlenberg county praying that a poll be opened August 29 to take the sense of the voters in the county upon the subject.

Another petition is being circulated,
and is receiving many signers, to take the vote upon the matter separately in the town of Central City.

DEEDS.

Hattie Helm deeds to Frank Crawford, for $100, property in the county.

Dema Cooper deeds to Frank Cooper, for $100, property in the county.

TAYLOR'S TROUBLES

Attorney Unable to Get Service
of Marshall County Man.

Says They Got in a Buggy and Hurriedly Left the City.

Attorney L. K. Taylor returned last night from Benton, where he went with papers notifying Attorney John G. Lovett of the contest for the Democratic nomination for commonwealth's attorney. He states that he took the papers to the sheriff, who consumed considerable time going over them, and then rather reluctantly accompanied the attorney in search of Attorney Lovett, on whom it was desired to serve the papers.

He claims that both Attorney Lovett
and Chairman Edwards of the Marshall county committee had in some way been informed of his arrival and hurriedly left in a buggy for the country, and that the sheriff refused to go after them, although the attorney offered to pay the expenses.

Attorney Taylor returned without having accomplished his object, but says he left the papers and, unless the sheriff is in a conspiracy to prevent the service of the papers, he supposes
they will be served some time.

Attorney Taylor promises to make things lively. He declares that he knows where bogus ballots were printed in Paducah to use in stuffing
the boxes and what numbering machine was used.

DESPERATE NEGRO

KILLS A DETECTIVE AND COMES NEAR BEING MOBBED.

Peoria, Ill., June 24—Detective
William E. Murphy was killed by "Billy" McRay, a desperate negro character whom he was attempting to arrest at the corner of Wate and Eaton streets about 10 o'clock last night.
Murphy, armed with a warrant for McRay on the charge of burglary, approached the negro, who was standing on the corner, and informed him that he was under arrest. Without a moment's warning McRay drew a revolver and shot the officer in the breast. He then attempted to make his escape, but was caught by Detective Chadwick. Murphy was taken to the hospital, where he died within ten minutes of the time he received the wound.

McRay was hurried to the city jail,
and in less than an hour a mob numbering at least 1000 men and boys had assembled and made a demand on the chief of police for the prisoner. The chief refused to surrender the murderer.

In hope of attracting the attention of the mob, the fire department was called out and made run past the jail.
The ruse partially succeeded, a large number of the crowd following the fire department. In the meantime the chief had ordered all the electric lights in the city to be turned out, and in the darkness McRay was hurriedly
taken to the county jail, where he was safe.

DEED OF FIEND.

MURDEROUS ASSAULTS MADE
ON SEVERAL AT ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, June 24—Two women,
one white and the other colored, were assaulted and left for dead about three and a half miles east of East St. Louis yesterday afternoon.

One of the victims, Anne Green, a colored woman aged 25, was clubbed
about the head, her skull fractured
and her left arm broken. Just before relapsing into unconsciousness she told
of the assault and described a light yellow negro, aged about 25 years, as her assailant. She was evidently the first victim of the fiend, who later
proceeded to the home of John Bruno,
a well-to-do farmer living between East St. Louis and Belleville, and committed the second crime.

About 8 o'clock a brother of Miss Flora Bruno, aged 17, returned home
and found his sister lying on her bed
in an unconscious condition. Her skull was fractured, both arms were fractured and she was suffering from other injuries. The young woman had been at home alone during the afternoon tending to the family washing. She was her father's housekeeper.

THE SICK.

Mr. Will Yancey, of the county, is out after a several days' illness.

Mrs. Frank Scott, of Myers street,

CHANGED HER MIND

Miss Collins Decided She Did
Not Want to Marry

And the Prospective Groom Finds Himself Sorely Disappointed.

This was Mr. Fred Iverlett's wedding day, but he finds himself without a bride. Some time ago the marriage of Mr. Iverlett to Miss Mattie Collins, adopted daughter of former
Chief of Police James Collins of South
Fourth street, was announced to take place this morning at the St. Francis de Sales church.

The bans were published at the church two Sundays and a dispensation secured so they need not be published the third time. Everything was in readiness for the ceremony, which was to have been performed by Rev. Father Jansen this morning.

But there was no wedding. Last night the bride-to-be decided she didn't want to marry, and communicated her feelings to her relatives,
who advised her if she didn't want to marry the best thing to do would be
to go to Cincinnati to visit relatives,
so last night she left. This morning
instead of finding herself a bride she finds herself far from home, and the prospective groom finds himself a badly disappointed young man. The young lady's only reason for her unexpected action was that she decided
she didn't want to marry.

Mr. Iverlett has been working for
Mr. Louis Clark, the grocer but resigned yesterday.

A BIG RUSH

Illinois Central Coal Hauling
Starts Early.

New Men Being Employed Every Day
on Southern Divisions.

The Illinois Central railroad company is now enjoying one of the most prosperous periods in the history of the road. On all divisions they are employing new men and supplying
the road with new engines and cars.

The big rush of business is due to the fact that the coal shipping has begun now earlier than ever before in order to fill the big demand for winter.

The grain business is also active and will greatly increase within the next few weeks. Trainmasters on the Tennessee division have employed twenty one new conductors since June 6.
Thirty-nine flagmen have been employed since June 6 and sixteen conductors have been sent to the Tennessee division in the past few days from the Omaha and Dubuque branch.

Four new conductors and eight flagmen were employed yesterday and but two old conductors have left the service.

WANT A JURY.

BASEBALL CASES CONTINUED
UNTIL TOMORROW MORNING.

The cases against the baseball players charged with violating the Sabbath were called this morning before Justice Jesse Young at the city hall
and a jury was asked by the defendants and ordered. After the jury had been summoned on account of the absence of witnesses the cases were all continued over until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the city hall.

CAUTION.

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of consumption and throat
and lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German syrup.
There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light
colds perhaps, but for severe coughs,
bronchitis, croup—and especially for consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25 cents size has just been introduced this year.
Regular size 75 cents. At all druggists.

DEFENDANT WON

Noted Case From Ballard Decided by Judge Evans.

Refused to Grant Petition of the Plaintiffs in Dupoyster Case.

An opinion was today received by U. S. Clerk Puryear from Judge Walter Evans, of the federal court at Louisville, in the case of W. S. Bryan against J. C. Dupoyster, to foreclose a mortgage lien for $5,000 on the old Fort Jefferson property in Ballard county, Ky., decided in favor of the defendant.

The case came up in federal court
here at the April term and was submitted. It is connected indirectly with the old suit of the Dupoysters
from Ballard that has been hanging
fire in the courts for so many years,
but the one above was filed in 1902.

Attorneys Bloomfield & Orice of Paducah, and Sullivan, of St. Louis, were attorneys for the plaintiffs, and bagby & Martin, of Paducah, for the defendants. The opinion covers many typewritten sheets of paper.

SETTLEMENT EXPECTED.

BUT IT HAS NOT YET BEEN MADE.

No settlement of the strike has been reached at the dry docks as Mr.
Henry Petter is still away from the city. A member of the corporation stated this morning that no work had been secured and it was not known that any compromise would be effected until work is secured. It is practically settled however that the company will accede to the $3, nine hour scale, Mr. Petter having stated that he would pay what the ways did.

CONDUCTOR ARRESTED.

WALTER GIBSON WANTED IN BIRMINGHAM FOR GRAND LARCENY.

Marshal L. C. Roberson at Fulton
arrested Walter R. Gibson, an Illinois Central freight conductor, on an old charge preferred by parties in Alabama. He is charged with grand larceny and the arrest was on a state
warrant sent to the Fulton officer by officers at Birmingham, Ala., where it is charged the violation of the law was committed. Gibson gave bond for his appearance on June 29 and he was allowed to take his train on to its destination.

COURT AT MARION

Former Dyersburg Judge Fined
for Disturbing Assembly.

A Large Number of Railroad Cases
Considered—Young Man Skips.

Circuit court at Marion, Crutenden
county, is over after a two weeks session.

One of the most interesting cases
was that against Police Judge Yates,
of Dyersburg, who was charged with disturbing a lawful assembly. It appears there had been a union Sunday school at Dyersburg and when an effort was made to organize one of some separate denomination the judge
is alleged to have interfered and tried to prevent it. He was fined $20 and costs.

A young man named Sisco, charged with seduction, failed to answer and his bond was declared forfeited. He is supposed to have left the country.

A motion was made to transfer the damages suit of the administrator of
R. J. Robertson who was killed on the Illinois Central at Dulahey some time ago, to the federal court at Paducah, but not acted on. The suit is for $25,000.

WILL GO BACK.

LAWRENCE DEVLIN STARTED
TO INSTITUTE HABEAS CORPUS.

Officers have not yet arrived from Oklahoma after Lawrence Devlin, the man arrested night before last on a charge of bigamy, wanted at Woodward, Okla., but are expected today
or tomorrow.

Yesterday Devlin sent for an attorney, after announcing that he would return without a requisition, and stated he was thinking of taking out a writ of habeas corpus and fighting the case, but the attorney advised him, it is understood, that the best thing to do was to go back, and he is now waiting for the sheriff to come after him.

SUITS FILED.

Children's Eyes

"Eye strain" is a potent factor in the normal development of mind and body, and in causing and perpetuating physical ills. No child with defective eyes can be perfectly healthy. There is always headache and nervousness. Sometimes there is a disinclination to study, and left uncorrected, can even cause serious nervous disorders.
Why not bring the child in? I will make an examination without charge, and find the trouble.

are invited to the prayer meeting.

HAVE SECURED THE FAIR GROUNDS—Dr. S. B. Caldwell has granted the free use of the fair grounds to the committee arranging the harmony singing for the fourth of July, and the crowd promises to be one of the largest on record. The military company desired some of the ground for a sham battle but on account of the confusion likely to result Dr. Caldwell decided to let the church people have the grounds.

OVER THE FENCE

NEIGHBOR SAYS SOMETHING.

The front yard fence is a famous council place on pleasant days. Maybe to chat with some one along the
street, or for friendly gossip with next door neighbor. Sometimes it is only small talk but other times a neighbor
has something really good to offer.
An old resident of Baird, Tex., got some mighty good advice this way
once. "Drinking coffee had left me
nearly dead with dyspepsia, kidney disease and bowel trouble with constant pains in my stomach and back and side and so weak I could scarcely walk," he says.

"One day I was chatting with one of my neighbors about my trouble and told her I believed coffee hurt me.
Neighbor said she knew lots of people
to whom coffee was a poison and she pleaded with me to quit it and give Postum a trial. I did not take her advice right away but tried a change of climate but it did not do me any good
and then I dropped coffee and took up Postum.

"My improvement began immediately and I got better every day I used Postum.
"My bowels became regular and in
two weeks all my pains were gone;
now I am well and strong and can eat anything I want to without distress. All of this is due to my having quit coffee and used Postum regularly.

"My son who was troubled with indigestion thought that if Postum helped me so it might help him. It did too and he is now well and strong again. We like the Postum as well as we ever liked the coffee and use it altogether in my family in place of coffee and all keep well." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

tain before returning.

A BIG TIME COMING

Companies to Meet Here July 4
in Sham Battle.

In the Morning There Will Be Target Practice for Medal.

Captain James Caldwell and Lieutenant Moss of the Wheeler Guards, returned from Murray last night after making final and definite arrangements
for the big sham battle arranged for Paducah on July 4.

Murray will furnish a company of 50 men and Paducah a company of 60 men and the battle will take place at Wallace park beginning at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged simply to cover the expenses of the companies and is no money making scheme. This will be one of the biggest entertainments of the kind ever held here and will doubtless be well attended.

In the morning a target practice
will be held and the winner will receive a medal, box of cigars and several other prizes.

DECISION HERE

10:30 Closing Ordinance a Law
With Two Exceptions.

Screens Can be Required Taken Down,
According to Decision.

Copies of the court of appeals decision in the 10:30 closing ordinance appeal reached the city today and it is announced by those who have read it that it reverses Judge Husbands on only one point, that in regard to screens. The opinion holds that saloons may under police regulation
be closed at 10:30 p. m. and may require screens or blinds set aside when not open for business.

As to the going in or out of a saloon
constituting incriminating evidence,
that portion of the ordinance relative to wholesale liquor houses and the sale of liquor in drug stores, these points are already covered by law, or are unconstitutional.

FOR SYSTEMIC CATARRH

Peculiar to Summer Pe-ru-na Gives Prompt and Permanent Relief.

C. S. Rhoads, Indianapolis, Ind., writes:
"For the past two years I have hardly known what it was to have a sweet, restful night's sleep. Cares and overwork seemed to weigh me down more than it should or would had I been able to get my proper rest. My doctor was unable to help me and ordered me South for a complete rest and change. As this was simply out of the question, and as I had heard several of the men under me speak of how much Peruna had helped them, I decided to try it and am glad indeed that I did. Six bottles made a new man of me. I eat well, sleep well and get up feeling refreshed and rested.
"My official duties are not half so hard and I certainly have good reasons to heartily endorse Peruna."—C. S. Rhoads.

Judge Wm. T. Zenor, of Washington,

Washington, D. C.:

"I take pleasure in saying that I can cheerfully recommend the use of Peruna
as a remedy for catarrhal trouble and a most excellent tonic for general conditions."—Wm. T. Zenor.

Mrs. Amanda Morrill, 130 Reid street,
Elizabeth, N. J., writes:

"I have been sick over two years with nervous prostration and general debility, and heart trouble. Have had four doctors; all said that I could not get well. I had not walked a step in nine months, suffering with partial paralysis
and palpitation of the heart every other day, and had become so reduced
in flesh as to be a mere skeleton,
weighing only 85 pounds.

"Up to this date I have taken Peruna
for seven months. It has saved my life

as I can safely testify. I have not felt so well in five years, having walked over one mile without ill result, and have also gained thirty pounds since commencing to take Peruna. In fact,
I cannot praise it too highly."—Mrs.
Amanda Morrill.

Peruna never fails to prevent systemic catarrh or nervous prostration if taken in time. Peruna is the most prompt and permanent cure for all cases of nervous
prostration caused by systemic catarrh
known to the medical profession.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Theatrical Notes.

The show now on at The Casino is a decided hit and should be given big business all summer. Manager English made a wise move in securing The Seward Show for it is decidedly one of the best stock companies on the road. The play the past two nights was far better than one would expect to see at a summer park theater, and the members of the company are far above the ordinary repertoire average.
Fred and Minnie Seward are the chief entertainers, and both are entitled to the positions they occupy for they display abilities of the highest order.
There are no waits between acts, the interims being filled with a number of catchy specialties of which the illustrated songs are decidedly the prettiest. The play for Wednesday and Thursday nights will be the story of
"A Fatal Wedding."

NEW OFFICERS

COUNTY NOW HAS TWO TO SETTLE REAL ESTATE
DISPUTES.

Hugh Marshall and T. S. Long of the county were today appointed processioners by County Judge R. T.
Lightfoot, who made the announcement that he would appoint them several months ago.

These officers have duties virtually the same as a judge. They settle disputes and divide land in dispute and are paid $2 per day for their services
during the time they work, the money
being paid by the property owners who are disputing the claim.

ST. JOHN'S DAY

A Paducah Delegation Want to Benton Today.

Appropriate Exercises Held—Paducahans to Make Speeches.

This morning many Masons went out to Benton to attend the St. John's day celebration. Those who went down from here are Messrs. J. R. Coleman, R. J. Barber, Rev. W. H. Robinson, Supt. W. J. Hills of the N. C. and St. L. road, Charles Erhart, Charles Lee, W. H. Hills, Roadmaster Walker of the N. C. and St. L., Will Winston, H. M. Cunningham and Joe Bonds and wife. Messrs. Bonds and Cunningham go to assist the Smithland and Golconda bands, which headed the big parade this morning.

The parade started this morning at 10 o'clock and was a feature of the celebration. The Smithland band brought with it a delegation from Smithland and also many came over from Golconda. Murray is well represented and a few from Mayfield are in attendance. The morning train over the N. C. and St. L. road waited for the L. C. accommodation train from Mayfield and from Hopkinsville.

Those who will speak today are Dr. J. R. Coleman, Justice R. J. Barber and Supt. W. J. Hills, and several children will render musical selections and recitations.

GORGEOUS ROOM.

KING SOLOMON'S CHAPTER TO HAVE MAGNIFICENT APARTMENTS.

The new chapter room of King Solomon's Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, in the new Masonic Temple at Louisville will reflect some of the splendor of King Solomon's Temple. It will be the most magnificent apartment of the kind in the south, and one of the most magnificent in the country. No expenses will be spared in bringing about this result.

For more than a year the chapter has had under consideration the plan for furnishing and fitting its chapter room in the new temple, and it was long ago decided to furnish the apartment in the most gorgeous style and to provide it with the most complete equipment for conferring the secret work of the order. The furniture, paraphernalia and even the robes will be entirely new, and will be the finest that can be procured.

Members of the committee have just returned from a visit to Memphis for the purpose of inspecting the chapter room of the Royal Arch Chapters in that city, which is considered one of the finest of the kind in the south. Other members of the committee have at different times visited Nashville and Savannah, in the south, and New York, Brooklyn, Boston, Philadelphia and other Eastern cities noted among Masons for the grandeur of their Masonic institutions. In these cities many ideas of the Oriental furnishings of such apartments have been picked up, all of which will be brought into use in furnishing and equipping the chapter room.

M'KINLEY MEMORIAL.

TRUSTEES HAVE COLLECTED $600,000 AND WILL CALL FOR DESIGNS.

Cleveland, O., June 24—The trustees of the McKinley National Memorial association met here today for the purpose of reviewing the work so far accomplished, and deciding upon future action. The meeting was presided over by Mr. Justice Day, the president of the association.

A report from the office of the association and also one from Treasurer Myron T. Herrick showed total contributions amounting to about $600,000, and it was decided that designs should be at once invited, to be inspected and acted upon at such time as the board may determine.

The trustees issued a statement in which they say that the monument and its proper maintenance will require an additional fund of $100,000, and they urgently request renewed efforts on the part of all interested in the work for the raising of this additional amount.

Mr. Lewis G. Reynolds of Dayton, O., founder of the Carnation League of America, made a proposal to the trustees that the members of the Carnation League be given an opportunity to assist to raise the $100,000 additional for an endowment fund. Mr. Reynolds said the league now numbered probably 125,000 persons, and he expected that it would number 1,000,000 before many months had passed. Senator Hanna's suggestion that Mr. Reynolds be authorized to enlist the members of the Carnation League in the work was approved.

Among those at the meeting were Justice Day, Senator Hanna, Senator Fairbanks, Secretary Cortelyou and Myron T. Herrick.

RUSSIA AND CHINA AGREE.

London, June 24—A dispatch to the Times from Peking says that Russia and China have arrived at an agreement regarding Manchuria and New Chwang. Prince Ching, the dispatch adds, admits the fact, but declines to communicate the terms to the foreign ministers. He intimates that China neither seeks nor requires assistance or interference from Japan or Great Britain.

HOT WEATHER WEAKNESS.

If you feel fagged out, listless and lacking in energy, you are perhaps suffering from the debilitating effects of summer weather. These symptoms indicate that a tonic is needed that will create a healthy appetite, make digestion perfect, regulate the bowels and impart natural activity to the liver. This, Herbina will do, it is a tonic, laxative and restorative. H. J. Freegard, Proprietor, Grand View Hotel, Cheney, Kan., writes: "I have used Herbina for the last 12 years, and nothing on earth can beat it. It was recommended to me by Dr. Newton, Newton, Kan." 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

THE RICHMOND ROUTE FOR MICHIGAN TOURISTS.

Sleeping cars leave Louisville 3:30 p. m. daily over Pennsylvania Short Lines via Richmond and the G. Inquiries for further information should be addressed to C. H. Hagerty, D. P. Agt., Louisville, Ky.

CONSTIPATED BOWELS.

To have good health, the body should be kept in a laxative condition, and the bowels moved at least once a day, so that all the poisonous wastes are expelled daily. Mr. G. L. Edwards, 142 N. Main street, Wichita, Kan., writes: "I have used Herbina to regulate the liver and bowels for the past ten years, and found it a reliable remedy." Price 50c.
Sold by DuBois, Kolb & Co.

NECK BROKEN IN RUNAWAY.

Sturgis, June 24—While driving with his sister near Henshaw Otho Hearin, son of Mr. Sam Hearin, a prominent farmer, was thrown from the buggy and his neck was broken. The young man died a few moments after the accident. The young woman was also thrown from the buggy in the runaway and sustained serious injuries.

TAX ON BABIES.

Extreme hot weather is a great tax upon the digestive power of babies; when puny and feeble they should be given a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge, the children's tonic. It will stimulate and facilitate the digestion of their food, so that they soon become strong, healthy and active. 25c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

THE Yellowstone Park

season opened June 1. The Park is increasing in popularity yearly and it is becoming quite the thing for special parties to visit it. Then, too, people stay there longer. Although the regular tourist trip provides for 5½ days in the park, any one can remain longer without any extra charge for transportation. Many cannot afford to spend more time than 5½ days there so the regular schedule is based on that fact.

The hotels are all modern in appointment, electric lighted and steam heated and the trip through this Wonderland is the finest coaching trip to be found in the country.

The government is spending large amounts of money in perfecting the road system. New roads, new steel bridges, improving old roads, is the order of things.

Yellowstone Park is the biggest thing of the kind in the world and "WONDERLAND 1903," which describes it and is published by the Northern Pacific, will be sent to you on receipt of six cents by

GRAUSTARK

... By ...
GEORGE BARR McCUTCHEON

Copyright, 1901, by Herbert S. Stone

"You brute!" hissed the countess, with flashing, indignant eyes, throwing her arms about the princess and drawing her head to her breast.

"Forgive me," he cried, sinking to his knee before the princess, shame and contrition in his face. "I have been half mad this whole day, and I now see that you are suffering more intensely than I. I love Lorry, and that is my only excuse. He is being foully wronged, your highness, foully wronged."

"I deserve your contempt after all. Whether he be guilty or innocent, I should have refused to sign the decree. It is too late now. I have signed away something that is very dear to me—his life. You are his friend and mine. Can you tell me what he thinks of me—what he says—how he feels?" She asked the triple question breathlessly.

"He believes you were forced into the act, and said as much to me. As to how he feels, I can only ask how you would feel if you were in his place, innocent and yet almost sure of conviction. These friends of Axphain will resort to any subterfuge now that one of their number has staked his life. Mark my word, some one will deliberately swear that he saw Grenfall Lorry strike the blow, and that will be as villainous a lie as man ever told. What I am here for, your highness, is to ask if that decree cannot be withdrawn."

"Alas, it cannot! I would gladly order his release if I could, but you can see what that would mean to us—a war, Mr. Anguish," she sighed miserably.

"But you will not see an innocent man condemned?" cried he, again indignant.

"I have only your statement for that, sir, if you will pardon me. I hope from the bottom of my heart that he did not murder the prince after being honorably challenged."

"He is no coward!" thundered Anguish, startling both women with his vehemence. "I say he did not kill the prince, but I'll stake my life he would have done so had they met this morning."

"He may be able to clear himself," suggested the countess nervously.

"And he may not; so there you have it. What chance have two Americans over here with everybody against us?"

"Stop! You shall not say that! He shall have full justice at any cost, and there is one here who is not against him!" cried the princess, with flashing eyes.

"I am aware that everybody admires him because he has done Graustark a service in ridding it of something obnoxious—a prospective husband. But that does not get him out of jail."

"You are unkind again," said the princess slowly. "I chose my husband, and you assume much when you intimate that I am glad because he was murdered."

"Do not be angry," cried the countess impatiently. "We all regret what has happened, and I, for one, hope that Mr. Lorry may escape from the tower and laugh forevermore at his pursuers. If he could only dig his way out!"

The princess shot a startled look toward the speaker as a new thought entered her wearied brain. A short, but announced their marriage and he went to housekeeping at Eleventh Harrison streets.

The bride is the pretty daughter of ex-Policeman Willis Morgan and popular young lady. The groom is a fireman on the I. C. road and has many friends.

Mrs. L. W. Pratt returned to Paducah, Ky., today after a visit to her sister Mrs. W. A. Davis.

LORRY'S cell was as comfortable as a cell could be made through the efforts of a kindly jailer and a sympathetic chief of police. It was not located in the dungeon, but high in the tower, a little rock bound room, with a single barred window far above the floor. There was a bed of iron, upon which had been placed a clean mattress, and there was a little chair. The next day after his arrest a comfortable armchair replaced the latter. A table, a lamp, some books, flowers, a bottle of wine and some fruit found their way to his lonely apartment, whoever may have sent them. Harry Anguish was admitted to the cell during the afternoon.

He reported that most of the Axphain contingent was still in town. A portion had hurried home, carrying the news to the old prince, instructed by the aggressive Mixrox to fetch his forthwith to Edelweiss, where his august presence was necessary before the 26th. The princess, so Harry informed the prisoner, sent sincere expressions of sympathy and the hope that all would end well with him.

Late in the evening, as Lorry was lying on his bed, staring at the shadowy ceiling and puzzling his brain with most oppressive uncertainties, the rattle of keys in the lock announced the approach of visitors. The door swung open, and through the grate he saw Dangloss and Quinnox. The latter wore a long military rain coat and had just come in from a drenching down-pour. Lorry's reverie had been so deep that he had not heard the thunder nor the howling of the winds. Springing to his feet, he advanced quickly to the grated door.

"Captain Quinnox brings a private message from the princess," said the chief, the words scarcely more than whispered. It was plain that the message was important and of a secret nature. Quinnox looked up and down the corridor and stairway before thrusting the tiny note through the bars. It was grasped eagerly, and trembling fingers broke the seal. Bending near the light, he read the lines, his vision blurred, his heart throbbing so fiercely that the blood seemed to be drowning out other sounds for all time to come. In the dim corridor stood the two men, watching him with bated breath and guilty, quaking nerves.

"Oh," gasped Lorry, kissing the missive fanesly as his greedy eyes careened through the last line. There was no signature, but in every word he saw her face, felt the touch of her dear hand, heard her timid heart beating for him—for him alone. Rapture thrilled him from head to foot, the delicious rapture of love. He could not speak, so overpowering was the joy, the surprise, the awakening.

"Obey!" whispered Quinnox, his face aglow with pleasure, his finger quivering as he pointed commandingly toward the letter.

"Obey what?" asked Lorry dully.

"The last line!"

He hastily reread the last line and then deliberately held the precious missive over the lamp until it ignited. He would have given all he possessed to have preserved it. But the last line commanded, "Burn this at once and in the presence of the bearer."

"There!" he said regretfully as he crumpled the charred remnants between his fingers and turned to the silent watchers.

"Her crime goes up in smoke," muttered Dangloss sententiously.

"The princess commits no crime," retorted Quinnox angrily, "when she trusts four honest men."

"Where is she?" whispered the prisoner, with thrumming ears.

"Where all good women should be at 9 o'clock—in bed," replied Dangloss shortly. "But will you obey her command?"

"So she commands me to escape!" said Lorry, smiling. "I dare not disobey my sovereign, I suppose."

"We obey her because we love her," said the captain of the guard.

"And for that reason I also obey. But can this thing be accomplished without necessitating explanations and possible complications? I will not obey if it is likely to place her in an embarrassing position."

"She understands perfectly what she is doing, sir. In the first place, she has had my advice," said Dangloss, the good old betrayer of an official trust.

"You advised her to command you to allow me to escape?"

"She commanded first, and then I advised her how to command you. Axphain may declare war a thousand times over, but you will be safe. That's all we—I mean, all she wants."

"But I cannot desert my friend. How is he to know where I've gone? Will not vengeance fall on him instead?"

"He shall know everything when the proper time comes. And now will you be ready at the hour mentioned? You have but to follow the instructions—I should say, the commands—of the writer."

"And be free! Tell her that I worship her for this. Tell her that every drop of blood in my body belongs to her. She offers me freedom, but makes me her slave for life. Yes, I shall be ready. If I do not see you again, good friends, remember that I love you because you love her and because she loves you enough to intrust a most dangerous secret to your keeping, the commission of an act that may mean the downfall of your nation." He shook hands with them fervently.

"It cannot be that, sir. It may cost the lives of three of her subjects, but no man save yourself can involve the princess or the crown. They may kill us, but they cannot force us to betray her. I trust you will be as loyal to the good girl who wears a crown not upon her head," said Dangloss earnestly.

"I have said my life is hers, gentlemen," said Lorry simply. "Oh, if I could but throw myself at her feet! I must see her before I go. I will not go without telling her what is in my heart!" he added passionately.

"You must obey the commands implicitly on your word of honor or the transaction ends now," said Quinnox firmly.

"This escape means, then, that I am not to see her again," he said, his voice choking with emotion.

"Her instructions are that you are to go tonight, at once," said Dangloss, and the black eyed soldier nodded confirmation.

The prisoner paced the floor of his cell, his mind a jumble of conflicting emotions. His clinched hands, twitching lips and half closed eyes betrayed the battle that was inflicting him with its carnage. Suddenly he darted to the door, crying:

"Then I refuse to obey! Tell her that if she permits me to leave this hole I shall be at her feet before another night has passed. Say to her that I refuse to go from Graustark until I have seen her and talked with her. You, Quinnox, go to her now and tell her this, and say to her also that there is something she must hear from my own lips. Then I will leave Graustark, and not till then, even though death be the alternative." The two men stared at him in amazement and consternation.

"You will not escape?" gasped Quinnox.

"I will not be dragged away without seeing her," he answered resolutely, throwing himself on the bed.

"Confounded young ass!" growled Dangloss. The soldier's teeth grated. A moment later the door closed softly, a key rattled and his visitors were gone—messengers bearing to him the most positive proof of devotion that man could exact.

He looked at his hands and saw the black stains from the charred letter, last evidence of the crime against the state. A tender light came to his eyes, and he kissed the sooty spots, murmuring her name again and again. How lonely he was! How cold and cheerless his cage! For the first time he began to appreciate the real seriousness of his position. Up to this time he had regarded it optimistically, confident of vindication and acquittal. He grew cold and shuddered instinctively as he realized that his position was so critical that the princess had deemed it necessary to resort to strategic measures in order to save him from impending doom. Starting to his feet, he paced the floor, nervousness turning to dread, dread to terror. He pounded on the door and cried aloud. Oh, if he could but bring back those kindly messengers!

Exhausted, torn by conflicting emotions, he at last dropped to the bed and buried his face in his arms, nearly mad with the sudden solitude of despair. He recalled her dear letter, the tender, helping hand that had been stretched out to lift him from the depths into which he was sinking. She had written—he could see the words plainly—that his danger was great; she could not endure life until she knew him to be safely outside the bounds of Graustark. His life was dear to her, and she would preserve it by dishonoring her trust. Then she had unfolded her plan of escape, disjunctively, guiltily, hopelessly.

But she was offering him freedom only to send him away without granting one moment of joy in her presence. After all, with death staring him in the face, the practically convicted murderer of a prince, he knew he could not have gone without seeing her. He had been ungrateful perhaps, but the message he had sent to her was from his heart, and something told him that it would give her pleasure.

A key turned suddenly in the lock and his heart bounded with the hope that it might be some one with her surrender in response to his ultimatum. He sat upright and rubbed his swollen eyes. The door swung open, and a tall prison guard peered in upon him, a sharp eyed, low browed fellow in raincoat and helmet. His lantern's single unkind eye was turned menacingly toward the bed.

"What do you want?" demanded the prisoner irritably.

Instead of answering, the guard proceeded to unlock the second or grated door, stepping inside the cell a moment later. Smothering an exclamation, Lorry jerked out his watch and then sprang to his feet, intensely excited. It was just 12 o'clock, and he remembered now that she had said a guard would come to him at that hour. Was this the man? Was the plan to be carried out?

The two men stood staring at each other for a moment or two, one in the agony of doubt and suspense, the other quizzically. A smile flitted over the face of the guard. He calmly advanced to the table, putting down his lantern. Then he drew off his raincoat and helmet and placed in the other's hand a gray envelope. Lorry reeled and would have fallen but for the wall against which he staggered. A note from her was in his hand. He tore open the envelope and drew forth the letter. As he read he grew strangely calm and contented. A blissful repose rushed in to supplant the racking unrest of a moment before. The shadows fled and life's light was burning brightly once more. She had written:

I entreat you to follow instructions and go tonight. You say you will not leave Graustark until you have seen me. How rash you are to refuse liberty and life for such a trifle! But why, I ask, am I offering you this chance to escape? Is it because I do not hope to see you again? Is it not enough that I am begging, imploring you to go? I can say no more.

He folded the brief note, written in agitation, and, after kissing it, proceeded to place it in his pocket, determined to keep it to the last hour of his life. Glancing up at a sound from the guard, he found himself looking into the muzzle of a revolver. A deep scowl overspread the face of the man as he pointed to the letter and then to the lamp. There was no mistaking his meaning. Lorry reluctantly held the note over the flame and saw it crumble away as had its predecessor. There was to be no proof of her complicity left behind. He knew it would be folly to offer a bribe to the loyal guard.

Tribute to Defeated Men.

At the opening of congress nearly every desk in both houses was loaded with flowers. It is regarded as curious that the handsomest tributes of this kind were paid to Congressman Connell of Pennsylvania and Loud of California, both of whom had been defeated after renomination.

Correct Summer Clothing

The Kind That Won't Lose Shape

Did you ever notice how quick this clothing loses its shape? It's because it is not made right. We overcome that fault in our Correct Summer Clothing—we've had it made a new way. The coats have a full shoulder, with hair-cloth stiffening down the front, that keeps them from breaking or losing shape. The pants have cuff bottoms, concealed buttons and felt straps, the cloth is thoroughly shrunk which overcomes bagging at the knee. There's no clothing like it for fit and style in Paducah. We show the new Irish Donegal Cloths, Cheviots and Home-spuns in coats and pants for men and young men.

flew out to center. No runs.

ELEVENTH INNING.

Cairo—Brockett walked. Rutledge went out at first. Brockett stole third and scored on passed ball. Wallace hit safe to LeCompte, who made fine stop, and Crotty hit to short, retiring side by double play from LeCompte to Edmunds to Fitzgerald. One run.

Paducah—Murray fouled out to third. Perry walked. LeCompte hit to short, forcing Perry out at second. Connors went out on foul to first baseman.

TODAY'S LINE-UP.

Cairo—Rutledge, catcher; Clark, pitcher; Hughes, fr. base; Smith, second base; Witt, third base; Crotty, short stop; Wallace, left field; Powers, center field; Schwab, right field.

Paducah—Clifford, catcher; Girard, pitcher; Fitzgerald, first base; Edmunds, second base; Connors, third base; LeCompte, short stop; Murray, left field; Gage, center field; Potts, right field.

A LITTLE DOPE.

Freeman had thirteen strike-outs yesterday.

Well, we don't know so much about slaughtering Cairo.

Langford umpired well yesterday and gave satisfaction to all.

A good hit, well placed, yesterday would have won the game.

The Cairo boys have to turn in at 12 o'clock at night or be fined.

Willie LeCompte always gets 'em, even if he has to lay down on them.

The visitors found when they sent their skyrockets out to left field that there was somebody there. Kenny Murray attended to their case.

One fan had a cow bell yesterday. Paducah not only has the reputation for large attendance, but is also entitled to a medal or two for rooters.

Cairo's first baseman is "Dummy" Hughes, who was said never to fan. He fanned yesterday all right, not making connection with the ball for a single hit.

The fans were delighted yesterday. Today the crowd promises to be larger than yesterday. Tomorrow, ladies' day—well, the park won't hold them, that's all.

The Cairo fans who waited patiently at home yesterday for news of the game had little to crow over. The Egyptians won because they were a little luckier than Paducah.

Gage, the new player from Michigan, arrived today and will play in the field today. Girard, who has been playing in the field, will not be played there hereafter, but will pitch exclusively.

Paducah's new third baseman hasn't done much with the stick yet, but that's all right. It takes a good man to cover third, which is one of the most difficult on the diamond, and if he can field well we can excuse his inability to hit hard.

Clark will pitch this afternoon for Cairo and Girard will pitch for Paducah. Cairo is saving Holycross for Thursday, ladies' day, and Paducah is saving Hedges. This day promises to be a pitcher's battle and a large crowd

Freeman pitched out of his time yesterday and will not be placed in again before Sunday, when Paducah plays at Cairo. There were but few Cairo fans here yesterday and Manager Jackson wants the Cairo sports to see what a real live pitcher looks like.

The K. I. T. league ought to put in official umpires and get together on schedule. Yesterday one club went to the wrong city to play, Henderson going to Vincennes when Vincennes is not supposed to be in the league now. The idea of not having a baseball game in Paducah Fourth of July, when Paducah is the best city in the league for baseball, shows an inexcusable lack of common sense in preparing the schedule. If there is not better management the league cannot expect to last the season.

By "X-Rays."

Just for once won't you try a pair of shoes that are not made from guesswork measurements of what your foot ought to be, but from "X-ray" photographs of what women's feet really are?

The "Dorothy Dodd" Shoe is exactly shaped to the bones, muscles, and ligaments of the foot, as they are plainly revealed by "X-ray" photograph. This is the explanation of why you hear so much talk on all sides about the wonderful "Fit of a 'Dorothy Dodd.'" The shoe deserves its popular nickname of "an arrangement in comfort." But all this is of no help to you unless you own a pair. On the day you buy them you will learn a new lesson in Foot Comfort.

After that, no one can sell you any other shoe but a "Dorothy Dodd."
